

Help a friend or colleague

How do you know when something is wrong?

Interpersonal difficulties

- Withdraws from others and doesn't show up to events
- Has difficulty sleeping or the inability to get out of bed
- Has changes in appetite
- Starts fights or shows unprovoked anger

Physical problems

- Deterioration in appearance
- Visible change in weight or hygiene
- Blurry eyed, hung over, or smells of alcohol

Academic issues

- Skips class and does not complete assignments
- Becomes easily distracted and unproductive

Safety/Risk

- Makes statements like, "What's the point?"
- Gives away prized possessions
- Demonstrates self-harming behaviors
- Makes oral or written threats about harming themselves or others

How you can help

- Kindly acknowledge the change in behavior.
- Express interest and avoid blaming.
- Use reflective listening skills by using I-statements and open/closed-ended questions.
- Provide support and understanding.
- Don't forget to take care of yourself!
- Suggest they seek professional help. Student Counseling Services offers free, confidential counseling. Call Student Counseling Services at (309) 438-3655 or visit Counseling.IllinoisState.edu. Employees can receive help through the Employee Assistance Program by calling (866) 659-3848.

Wellness.IllinoisState.edu

This message is co-sponsored by Health Promotion and Wellness and Student Counseling Services.

HEALTH PROMOTION AND WELLNESS
Illinois State University